

Fall 2009 Newsletter

PRESIDENT'S NOTES:

Welcome back to another wonderful year of Fine Arts with SUSD! As an all-volunteer organization, the success of the Arts in Education Council lies in the hearts and hands of many dedicated parents and community members-people like you! Many people have shared their talents to the ongoing efforts of the Council over the years, and we hope you will consider joining us in our mission to help Scottsdale students have a well-rounded education, one that includes Arts Education! If you would like to assist in any way, we would love to have you join us! Please visit www.artsined.org or contact president@artsined.org to see how you can help, or to learn more about our many vital programs.

Thank You!
Heather Heroldt

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE PROGRAM:

The Arts in Education Council proudly offers its congratulations to our schools that were awarded funding from the Arizona Commission on the Arts for this year's Artist in Residence programs! Kudos to Arcadia Neighborhood Learning Center, and Cherokee, Cochise, Cocopah, Desert Canyon, Laguna, Sequoya and Tavan !

Art Masterpiece: Our fabulous prints, sculptures and books are being relocated from the District Warehouse to the Early Childhood Center (ECC) in November. Watch for the grand reopening announcement!

THANK YOU!!

The Arts in Education Council offers its sincere thanks to the Scottsdale League for the Arts for their generous grant award that will fund professional touring performances for all of our Elementary and Middle School locations. This funding is raised through the Scottsdale Culinary Festival, and makes possible many quality programs for our students. Please accept our gratitude!
